AND

The Convener, EAMCET-1999
J.N.T.U., Hyderbad.

.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an order, direction or writ particularly one in the nature of Writ of "Mandamus" i) declaring the action of the respondent in not awarding marks to Choice No.2 of Question No.84, Choice No.1 to Question No.60, and Choice No.4 to Question No.154 is illegal and arbitrary and consequently direct the Respondent herein to revalue the answer sheet of the Petitioner herein and Award marks as sought by the Petitioner, issue revised rank card and admit the Petitioner into any Course in any of the College for the Academic Year 1999-2000.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.K.CHAITHANYA

Counsel for the Respondent: MR.K.RATHANGA PANI REDDY (SC FOR JNTU)

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondent in not awarding marks to Choice No.2 of Question No.84, Choice No.1 of Question No.60 and Choice No.4 of Question No.154 to the petitioner in EAMCET-1999 Examination as arbitrary and illegal and consequently to direct the respondent to revalue the answer sheet of the petitioner, award marks as sought by him, issue revised rank card and admit the petitioner into any Course in any of the College for the academic year 1999-2000.

When the matter is taken up today, none appears for the petitioner as well as the respondent. Since the relief sought by the petitioner in this writ petition is for admission into Agricultural and Medical Course for the academic year 1999-2000 only, by lapse of time the prayer in the writ petition has become infructuous.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
